

THIS WEEK'S NEWS

Christmas Program

Next Thursday,
December 10, we'll have our Christmas Program. Here's the important information you need:

- Starts at 7pm
- Students should wear nice attire that is red, white, or green (combo is ok!)
- Students sit with parents until time to perform
- Family and friends are invited!
- Cookie social to follow

November Reading Calendars

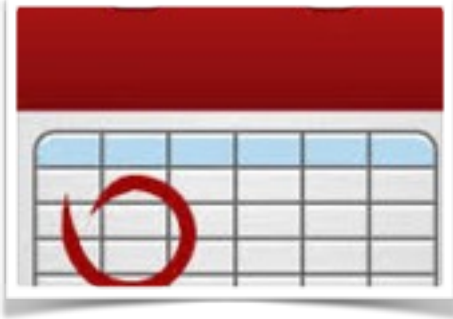

If you haven't already done so, make sure to send in your child's November Reading Calendar! :)

Caroling Field Trip

On Friday, December 18, we'll go on a field trip to sing some Christmas Carols to folks in assisted living-type homes. Mrs. Feicht is coordinating with the homes we'll sing at, and Parent Club will have cookies and hot chocolate for us to enjoy when we come back. We'll load cars up around 12:30 and head out. Parents are invited to join us - both as drivers and just to come fellowship and share God's love with our community.

This is a wonderful tradition we have had for several years, and it's a lot of fun. It's hard to know which is greater - the joy on the students' faces as they sing, or the joy on the residents' faces as they listen. Come join us!

Dates to Keep in Mind

- December 4: November Chapsembly
- December 9: Scholastic Book Orders Due!
- December 10: Christmas Program
- December 18: Caroling Field Trip
- December 21-January 1: No School-Christmas Break

This is a great way to stay up-to-date on what's happening in the classroom! I have a blog about what we do in class, as well as informational pages and digital copies of many of the documents I send home with your child.

November Chapsembly

We've arrived at the Christmas season! It's a busy time of year with Thanksgiving and Christmas here at school, which bumped our Chapsembly for November back to this Friday, December 4. Just like our last Chapsembly, we'll have some Heart of a Servant awards and some activities to promote school spirit and community. If your child is receiving an award, you'll be contacted so you can come to celebrate with them. All families are invited to join us for the fun!

Cold Weather Reminders

Thank you all for your quick responses last week when we had our 2 hour delay. In the event that Silver Falls School District is closed and we are in session, that is how we'll communicate. We'll probably use a similar contact method if they are open, but information would also be available online and through news sources.

Also, please help your child remember to bring and wear a coat on cold days. I have seen a handful of students without a coat, and we are outside as often as possible for recess. If it's truly too cold, we'll be inside; however, there are often cold days we are outside, and a coat is so necessary for those days! Thank you! :)
