

THIS WEEK'S NEWS

Dr. Seuss Celebration

This Friday, March 11 we will have hot lunch. It will be sloppy joes, applesauce, and carrots. If your child wants to have hot lunch, make sure they have a hot lunch ticket (check with the office) or send them with lunch money on Friday morning ($2.50). Students are always welcome to buy milk at lunch (any day!) for $0.50. Milk is included in the hot lunch price.

SACA Needs Blankets

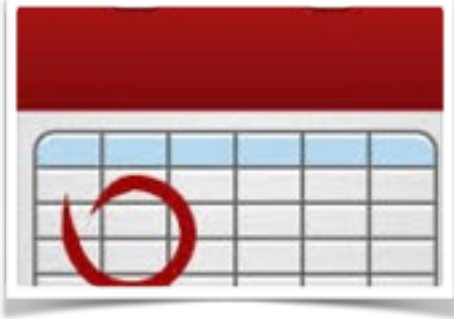

We were contacted last week to help out with a need that SACA (Silverton Area Community Aid) currently has. They are in need of blankets! If you would like to donate a new or gently used blanket, you can bring them to school and put them in the shopping cart we have in the gym. We'll make sure any donated blankets get to SACA so those who need them have access to them! Thanks for helping out with this need! :)

Reach for the Stars Read-a-thon!

Last Wednesday we kicked off our “Reach for the Stars” read-a-thon through Usborne Books. This is a fabulous opportunity that combines learning and fundraising (in the form of books!). Please help your child collect pledges from friends and family. These can be flat dollar amounts or “per minute” amounts. Keep in mind that the goal is to read 300 minutes, so “per minute” pledges should be small amounts so we don’t overwhelm those who are pledging! :)

Remember, 50% of the pledge money will go towards books for your child, and 50% of the pledge money will go towards books for our classroom. Thanks for supporting reading at our school and at home! :)

Parent Club Meeting

Just a quick heads up that this month's Parent Club meeting has been postponed to March 18. The meeting will take place at 8am as usual, just a week later than originally planned.

Continents, Oceans, & Books of the Bible

I can tell some students are really working hard on memorizing the continents, oceans, and books of the Bible! Keep up the hard work! We have a few more weeks to have the books of the Bible memorized and recited/sung to Miss Wilson. :)

Fundraiser Updates

Thank you to those who participated in the Scentsy fundraiser! It raised a couple hundred dollars for new PE equipment! Woo hoo!

The 8th graders are currently selling Papa Murphy's coupons for $5. These cards are a $30 value. What a bargain! The funds collected will help with graduation costs for their class, and graduation is only a few months away! Thank you for supporting our students. :)
