

THIS WEEK'S NEWS

Veteran's Day

There is NO SCHOOL tomorrow (Wednesday, November 11) due to Veteran's Day.

Operation Christmas Child

The Operation Christmas Child project is still going on. Shoeboxes are due on November 18!

Remember, if you pack a shoebox you need to have a $7 donation included for shipping costs. This helps the shoeboxes get to a country around the world. This donation can be included in your shoebox or paid online ahead of time. :)

Coats

The cold weather has arrived! Please help your child to remember to wear a coat! :)

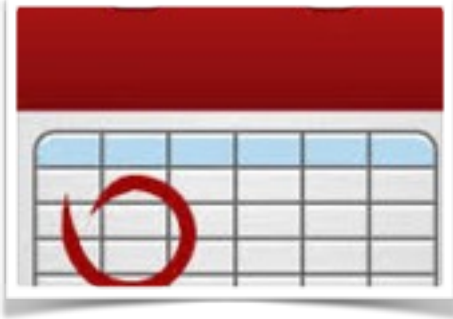

Grandparents' Day

On Friday, we have our Grandparents' Day celebration! It begins at 10:30am in the gym. If your child has a grandparent attending, be sure to let us know so we can include them in our head count, and if the questionnaire gets sent in completed, we can use information from their answers in our activities.

If your child does not have a grandparent attending, we'll buddy them up with a friend whose grandparent is there, so they can join the fun. We will work to make sure every student feels included as we celebrate grandparents!

We will sing, play games, and enjoy each others company. There will also be a snack to share together!

Dates to Keep in Mind

- November 11: NO SCHOOL- Veteran's Day

Turkey Trot

Next week, we will have our Turkey Trot! In the past, the Turkey Trot has been an activity to encourage students to be active during the month of November. This year, however, we've also incorporated a fundraiser component. A few weeks ago, your child should have brought home a Turkey Trot envelope in his or her Tuesday Folder a couple weeks ago. If you haven't already, please help your child fill out the pledge/donation information on the folder. Students can ask family members (near or far!), friends, neighbors, parents' co-workers, or anyone else they know to support them in the Turkey Trot with a donation.

Please read the information on your child's Turkey Trot folder or ask Mrs. Ridgeway for more information.

This is sure to be a lot of fun for our entire school!
